Week Snapshot

Dear Family,

Making friends is a life skill that is important to have. Our focus this week is all about friendship. We will be reading and discussing Huggapotamus by Steve Metzger. Throughout this week we will learn what is a friend and how can we be a good friend to others. We are all unique in our own way and we should know that we all can be friends no matter what!

Vocabulary

- delight: Great pleasure; joy
- waddling: To walk in short steps; back and forth
- spotted: To notice or catch sight of
- skidded: Suddenly slide sideways
- sigh: To breathe out a long breath

Poem of the Week

Wheels on the Bus

The wheels on the bus go round and round, round and round, round and round. The wheels on the bus go round and round, All day long.
 The wipers on the bus go swish, swish, swish....
 The horn on the bus goes beep, beep, beep....
 The driver on the bus goes move on back....
 The children on the bus go up and down....

Activities

Here are just a few activities you can do at home with your child this week!

- Make two fruit loop friendship bracelets by stringing fruit loops on a piece of string and giving one to a friend.
- Make a card and give it to a friend.
